

THE ETERNAL TEMPLE

This painting is inspired by the third Temple described by the prophet Yechezkel over 2500 years ago.

Kabbalah explains that the design of the Temple reflects our inner self. The stairs, walls, rooms, windows, doors, gates, vessels, water, fire, clothing, musical instruments, and rituals of the Temple all reflect aspects of consciousness.

In the divine presence, the entire world experiences our oneness.

The Temple is built with unconditional love. It is made of our prayers and acts of loving kindness.
